The total cost of the courier services that were not outsourced but managed in-house?

We do not have an in-house courier service. We do, however, have a fleet which we use to move around the city.

The number of staff employed in managing the in-house contracts

This information is not held. There are several service areas in CEC with a fleet and staff are not employed solely for a courier service. Many staff are production operatives and carry out other functions within the unit.

The number of vehicles either owned or leased to meet the in-house courier requirement

We have a fleet of cars and vans which we use to transport goods. However, these vehicles are not solely used for a courier service, they are also used for other activities.

The name and email of the person responsible for the management of courier services

This information is not held. We do not have an in-house courier service contract and there is no single point of contact.
