Subject: Ravelston Consultation

Hi Judith

The Ravelston consultation closes tomorrow and as I type we have had 272 responses to date, split roughly 65/35% in favour of the common good transfer.

[REDACTED]

In order that I can pull everything together effectively, could you advise whether Scott is expecting the data to be presented in any specific format and/or whether we should be focusing on any particular aspect of the returns.

Happy to discuss

Kind regards
Brian
