The number of social work cases opened to support people who has made a Subject Access Request related to time spent in care of the local authority.

Unfortunately, we do not hold this information.

We look at support on an individual basis and not all young people want to access support. We currently have no means to report on this without reviewing a large number of records and then we would have to follow up with wider discussions to check on whether support was offered. We would then have to review the full report to ascertain the length of time the young person was accommodated.
