

36016 Park and Ride

Can you please provide me with:

A list of every Park and Ride facility your council operates, or operates in partnership with another body(s).

Ingliston Park and Ride

Straiton Park and Ride

Hermiston Park and Ride

(Details of the other Park and Ride facilities in the city are published on our website at:

<https://www.edinburgh.gov.uk/parkandride>)

The date of when they opened.

Although we do not hold a record of their opening dates, you may find this through internet searches, e.g. Ingliston around 2006 and Straiton around 2008.

The cost of building the park and ride, and how much it costs the council per year to operate/maintain.

Again, we are unable to provide you with the information requested because it is not held by the Council. Park and Rides collectively have a budget of £185,000 per year.

How many times vehicles have used each one, broken down by month, since each one opened (or as far back as you are able to find for me within the restraints of FOI legislation)

No data is available for Straiton Park and Ride as no counts are made. Approximate figures are 30,000 per year.

We keep yearly approximate figures for Hermiston and Ingliston Park and Rides - Data is not always captured throughout the year. The following table provides a summary of what is recorded:

	2012	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019
Ingliston	79,740	195,587	227,231	255,952	284,640	281,921
Hermiston	N/A	N/A	103,055	103,690	101,856	104,919

Any plans your local authority currently has for building new park and ride facilities.

No

How much your local authority has spent on advertising its park and ride facilities.

£0.00

How much as your local authority spent in total on each of its park and rides, including construction, maintenance, operation, upgrades, and any other costs?

We do not hold these figures broken down to this level. As above, Park and Rides collectively have a budget of £185,000 per year.

Regarding the Park and Ride at Newcraighall, operated by Scotrail, we lease in part of it and, although we pay no annual rent, we paid a grassum of £273,500 on 30/03/2001.
