Location: An old road repair, located near our house, has been gradually worsening over the last few years. Now that the white lines have been moved to accommodate a cycle lane, traffic goes over the worst affected area and each time a bus (every 10mins) or lorry hits this spot in the road you can feel the house physically move by the impact. I'd be grateful if you could retarmac the damaged area to prevent any damage to my property and presumably, buses. As a main road it does have heavy traffic flow.      Contact:
