

36893 Travelling Abroad

I would like to know if someone living in temporary accommodation like a flat, wants to travel to his home country, how many weeks/months is he allowed to stay out of UK?

Generally, we will agree a maximum of two weeks however we would consider each request on its own merits.

And whom he has to let know that he is going abroad?

The Homeless Case Officer and the Temporary Accommodation Housing Officer.