The names and valuations - for insurance policies - of the three pieces of artwork currently missing, presumed stolen, as detailed in FOI request 35977

The name and valuation - for insurance policies - of the piece of artwork currently listed as missing as detailed in FOI request 35977

With regards to the names of the artworks currently missing and assumed stolen, and the artwork currently listed as missing, these shall not be provided on this occasion. Withheld under Section 30(c) – Prejudice to effective conduct of public affairs.

In terms of the valuations of these artworks, it should be noted that the Council operates within the Museums Association Code of Ethics which recognises the principle that collections should not normally be regarded as financially negotiable assets but are viewed as cultural assets. However, as an insurance requirement, we do hold valuations for these missing artworks but these shall not be provided on this occasion. Withheld under Section 35(1)(a) – The prevention or detection of crime.
