Budget allocated to City of Edinburgh music school in academic year 2020/2021 and 2021/2022 and how much additional funding was received from the Scottish Government to provide special music tuition.

The funding provided by the Scottish Government is £680K per year and the Council has allocated this to the education service at £530K in 2020/21 and £544K in 2021/22. The balance makes a contribution towards the costs of utilities, rates, planned maintenance, repairs and maintenance, janitorial and cleaning services.
