

38992

Full details of the traffic signals and lights sequences at the junction of York Place, Broughton Street and Leith Walk on 4 December 2021

Please find attached the junction layout on the 4th December 2021, there were various lane closures in place due to Tram to Newhaven works being carried out in this area. Also attached is the normal junction layout which includes a traffic signal staging diagram, the traffic signal staging sequence is detailed below.

We have also checked our traffic signal fault database, there were no reported faults for this date or the days preceding and after.

Stage Operation

- | | |
|----------|---|
| Stage 1: | York Place East Bound traffic ahead only (phase E)
Broughton St Pedestrian crossing (phase K)
Picardy pedestrian & cycle crossing not in use (phase H & O) |
| Stage 2: | York Place East Bound traffic ahead only (phase E)
Picardy left turn traffic (phase C) |
| Stage 3: | Picardy Place North bound traffic (phase B)
Picardy left turn traffic (phase C)
York Place North half pedestrian crossing (phase J)
Broughton St cycle early release (phase N) |
| Stage 4: | Picardy Place North bound traffic (phase B)
Picardy left turn traffic (phase C)
Broughton St left turn traffic (phase F)
York Place North half pedestrian crossing (phase J) |
| Stage 5: | Picardy Place right turn traffic (phase A)
Picardy Place North bound traffic (phase B)
Picardy left turn traffic (phase C)
York Place North half pedestrian crossing (phase J) |
| Stage 6: | Picardy Place North bound traffic (phase B)
York Place South half pedestrian crossing (phase I)
York Place North half pedestrian crossing (phase J)
Picardy Place East crossing not in use (phase K) |