Environmental Protection Act 1990:
Section 80

We would be obliged if you can provide us with the following details in regard to notices/Orders that have been made by City of Edinburgh Council under the legislation listed above:

Notices or Orders that remain extant as at 13th May 2024

We have two Notice that remain extant as at 13 May 2024:

The first is case reference 894460 which relates to excessive noise from plant machinery at 33 Albert Street, Edinburgh EH7 5LH. The UPRN for this property is 906007185. A Statutory Notice was served on 27 January 2023 allowing until 27 March 2023 for works to be carried out. A further noise survey confirmed that there was still excessive noise from the plant machinery on 28 March 2023. Correspondence has been entered into with the business owners and further formal action is currently being considered.

The second is case reference 940366. This relates to cockroach infestation within a domestic property and therefore the UPRN is not provided. A Statutory Notice was served on 1 March 2024 allowing 21 days for the nuisance to be abated. Works are currently underway, and it is expected the Notice will be complied with by the end of May 2024.
