

55627 Fox Covert Primary School Build Plans

What are the current plans to accommodate children from Fox Covert Primary school whilst the new school is being built?

We are currently looking into decant options during the rebuild with the school management teams and intend to have a briefing session with local elected members before engaging with the wider school community after summer.

When is the build due to start?

Timelines for construction are still to be confirmed.