

56090 Bus Lane Camera - The Shore

How many cars have been captured driving Southbound along the Shore since camera was introduced in May last year and how much has been raised in fines?

The table below shows the number of Notices issued and the amount paid in settlement of these since the camera went live on in May 2024.

Shore Camera - Southbound	PCN	Paid
141	14302	£659,704.26
Grand Total	14302	£659,704.26

Does the camera contain Chinese technology?

We use a variety of Bus Lane camera devices and do not hold information regarding where their internal components may be sourced or manufactured. However, all of our cameras are subject to ministerial and Vehicle Certification Agency approval.

How much did this camera cost?

The cost for purchase and installation was £18,814.

Is there any legal action pending regards these Low Traffic Neighbourhood type schemes in terms of ambulances and fire engines being delayed?

The City of Edinburgh Council is not aware of any legal action as described in your request.