The total amount spent by the Council on the investigation carried out by Kevin Dunion into allegations of misconduct by former Council Leader Cammy Day. Please include a breakdown of costs if available (e.g., fees, legal advice, staff time, etc.).

The cost of the investigation itself was £30,000.

Unfortunately, we do not hold a breakdown of all costs incurred (e.g. staff time) as this is not recorded separately.

Since the publication of the Dunion report, how many further allegations - if any - have been made to the Council by staff or members of the public concerning Councillor Cammy Day's conduct? Please detail the nature of any complaints and response.

Since publication we have not received any further complaints.

The number of emails sent and received from Councillor Cammy Day's official Council email account for each of the past 24 calendar months. If possible, please break this down by month.
