

56455 Storing of Homeless' Possessions

When a household becomes homeless, do you charge them a fee for storing their possessions?

If so, can you provide a full breakdown of fees charged for this service to the applicant?

No, the City of Edinburgh Council do not charge a fee for storing homeless households' belongings. The Council uses the company, Doree Bonner, if clients need items stored. The storage fees are paid by the Council.

Can you confirm the total amount of revenue raised from this policy over for;

- i) 2022/23
- ii) 2023/24
- iii) 2024/25

Not applicable.