The total cost to the Council to date in supporting Ukrainian refugees arriving in Edinburgh since the start of the conflict in Ukraine (please provide figures broken down by year, if available).

Any forecasted or projected costs for supporting Ukrainian refugees in Edinburgh over the next two financial years.

There has been no cost to the Council. All costs to date covered by the UK and Scottish Governments.

Copies of any current plans, policy papers, or internal discussions held by the Council relating to the potential future return of Ukrainian refugees to Ukraine, should the war or hostilities cease.

There are ongoing discussions with Scottish Government, COSLA and UK Government via regular meetings and forums. We hold no plans or policy papers in regard to the specific details of your request and are awaiting any further guidance from the UK and Scottish Governments.

Please see the following link to the debate on Homes for Ukraine published in July 2025.
