

57958 Voi Bicycle Scheme

In relation to the Voi free bicycle scheme operating in Edinburgh:

All anticipated costs to the City of Edinburgh Council or any other public body relating to the scheme.

There are no anticipated costs to the City of Edinburgh Council.

Impact assessments and analysis regarding effects on criminal and anti-social behaviour (including public safety measures such as tracing procedures for cycle users who commit crimes or cause injury).

Impact assessments and analysis regarding effects of the scheme in terms of the Council's duties under equalities and human rights legislation (including any mitigations considered in relation to impacts on individuals with the protected characteristic of disability).

Correspondence or reports relating to risks identified, including any communications with Police Scotland.

Details of any insurance arrangements, indemnities or other compensation available for injuries caused by or to Voi bike users.

Any correspondence or agreements with Voi regarding liability and public safety measures.

Any correspondence, analysis or reports regarding the impact of scheme policy on pavement safety and accessibility (including cycling on the pavement and unused cycles parked across pathways).

Any information provided by Voi regarding:

- Public safety
- Reported or anticipated injuries
- Mitigation measures or safety protocols

The documentation we hold in relation to this pilot scheme is marked as confidential and as such cannot be provided.

Who is the designated Council contact in relation to this scheme?

We do not currently have a designated contact. All correspondence should be directed to:

Customerservice@edinburgh.gov.uk