

58076

How much the council has spent since 1 January 2020 on removing Union Jack / British flags from public property (for example lampposts, street furniture, or other council-owned items).

The Council has spent £429.24 on the removal of flags from street lighting columns.

Which companies, contractors, or agencies carried out this work, and when.

The work was carried out by Council employees.

A breakdown of costs where available – for example, hourly or per-shift rates, block bookings, or other associated charges.

N/A

If the work was done by council employees, please provide an estimate of staff time spent and the equivalent cost.

The work was undertaken overnight and took 2 employees 4 hours to complete at a total cost of £429.24.