

58692 Dedicated Support Schools

How many applications for a place in dedicated support schools (ASN) or base for the term starting August 2026 have been received by October 31 year?

2.

How many applications for a place in dedicated support schools (ASN) or base for the term starting August 2025 were received?

10.

How many applications for the term starting August 2025 were granted?

4.

How many applications for the term starting August 2025 were refused with a mainstream placement instead?

4.

How many applications for a place in dedicated support schools (ASN) or base for the term starting August 2024 were received?

12.

How many applications for the term starting August 2024 were granted?

10.

How many applications for the term starting August 2024 were refused with a mainstream placement instead?

2.

How many places in total (across the council) at dedicated support schools (ASN) or bases have been available over the last three years?

The Council does not hold information about places that were available historically.

The Council only holds information about current places available at any given time. Currently, there are no places.

How many LSCS - specific language schools - are available in the council area and how many spaces in total are available for August 2025?

How many LSCS - specific language schools - are available in the council area and how many spaces in total were available for August 2024?

The Council does not have such schools additional to enhanced support bases.

How many children were granted an exceptional deferral from school to remain at nursery for the term starting August 2025 and August 2024?

August 2024 - 10 children.

August 2025 -16 children.