

58748

Request for floor plans of the common areas and building of 131 Fountainbridge Apartments.

It seems that what is now 131 Fountainbridge was historically known as 157 Fountainbridge before it was developed. Here is the property history on the portal including relevant planning applications & building warrants.

The original planning applications date from around 2000, so anything planning has will be on paper – you should contact historicplanningrecords@edinburgh.gov.uk who can search and arrange access at the Plan Store. They will require the references in the first link.

Building Warrants will be on paper as well & can be accessed via the Plan Store – the relevant BW references are also in the above link.