

58997 Electric Car Chargers - Craigleith Crescent

What was the cost of the installation of electric car chargers on Craigleith Crescent at its junction with Queensferry Road?

The total cost to install the charge points on Craigleith Crescent was £22,400.86, which was funded by Transport Scotland and the Office for Zero Emission Vehicles (OZEV).

What are the usage statistics for the chargers since installed?

The Council's charge points are hosted on the ChargePlace Scotland network. ChargePlace Scotland are responsible for publishing network performance statistics on their website for all publicly available charge points. The network performance statistics and reports can be found on their website.