

59650 Consultation Response Analysis

Any recorded information currently held summarising, analysing, or reviewing responses submitted to the North–South Tram consultation, including draft reports, briefing papers, spreadsheets, or internal summaries.

Any recorded information indicating whether consultation responses have been reviewed to date, including meeting minutes, notes, agendas, or internal correspondence referring to the consideration of responses.

No such summarised results exist. All 11,500 responses are being analysed (both quantitative and qualitative) and it will take a significant amount of time to fully analyse these responses.
