On 12 September 2024 the Scottish Government published updated guidance on school uniforms.

Please confirm:

- Whether or not the council altered, updated, amended or otherwise changed its own uniform guidance on or after this date
- The name of any school which altered, updated, amended or otherwise changed its uniform guidance on or after this date

Scottish Government guidance applies to all City of Edinburgh Council schools. The details of the decision was announced on the Council's website on 18/06/25.

Branded school clothing items are no longer required in our schools. Information on optional branded items is available on the school's individual websites.
