Good afternoon

In case it had yet to be brought to your attention, I was [REDACTED] today in the Old Calton Cemetery and came upon some disturbing occult style paraphernalia attached to the David Hume Mausoleum (pics attached).

I removed what I could but couldn't hang around [REDACTED] so I suspect you'll want to get someone over there as soon as possible. The structure itself has also had some satanic (?) symbols painted on it.

Thanks

[REDACTED]

Good evening

I have just returned to [REDACTED] after travelling to Edinburgh to attend [REDACTED] funeral on [REDACTED] March at [REDACTED], followed by burial at [REDACTED].

The flower tributes consisted of a large sized spray containing Lillie's, yellow roses and other flowers which covered the coffin, a [REDACTED] mass white Chrysanthemum and yellow roses, [REDACTED] mass white Chrysanthemum and red roses and [REDACTED] mass white Chrysanthemum and yellow roses.

I returned to the graveside on Thursday 5th March, [REDACTED] and was horrified to see that all the tributes had been decimated!

[REDACTED] but took photos as I could not believe what I was seeing. Can you please tell me how or why this happened, is it normal? Please see attached photo of what I witnessed [REDACTED]

Any help you can give to put my mind at rest would be much appreciated.

Kind regards

[REDACTED]
