

60889 Planning Applications in Farrer Terrace

I am looking for information in relation to planning applications in Farrer Terrace.

What date did the assessment take place in approving the recent planning application of the creation of a vehicle hardstanding in the front garden (in retrospect) at 2 Farrer Terrace Edinburgh.

The application was assessed during the period from its validation on 19/01/2022 to the point at which it was formally determined on 04/03/2026. This encompasses the assessment by the Case Officer, the drafting and submission of the Report of Handling, and the final authorisation of the Report of Handling by the authorising officer. The application was assessed under a desk-based analysis based on the submitted drawings and online visual images of the site and surrounding area.

What time did the assessment take place in approving the recent planning application of the creation of a vehicle hardstanding in the front garden (in retrospect) at 2 Farrer Terrace Edinburgh.

The specific time is not recorded, as described in A1 above.

How many vehicle hardstanding applications have been approved in the last 4 years.

The Planning authority does not keep specific records as to how many applications involving the formation of hard surfaces within the curtilage of domestic or non-domestic properties have been granted over a set period.

Records for all Planning Applications considered for each premises within the city are available on the Council's online Planning Portal which can be accessed through the following link:
