

61019 Information on immigration enforcement

In what circumstances will employees of the Council, e.g. Health and Safety Officers, accompany Immigration Enforcement Officers to an immigration enforcement visit?

Information not held.

How many times have employees of the Council accompanied Immigration Enforcement Officers to an immigration enforcement visit between January 2022 and October 2025?

There have been instances of multiagency working where these officers will jointly attend a premises (along with other partners such as HMRC and Police Scotland). We cannot definitively establish which agencies attended which premises on these visits, but Trading Standards staff attended on 2 days and visited 7 premises.

Does the Council engage in routine data sharing with the Home Office, with regard to immigration enforcement?

No.

What policies exist for the Council governing data - and information-sharing with Home Office Immigration Enforcement?

None.

How many times has the Council shared data with the Home Office for immigration enforcement purposes between January 2022 and October 2025?

8 intelligence logs have been submitted to the Home Office in the requested timeframe.