Hi Lewis,

It was just notification that needed to be sent to Ratho as it adjoins the site, I wouldn't usually request a revised application form in that instance, I would accept them confirming that they would notify them.

Is someone querying it? I probably should have saved a copy of the email to idox as an internal record for future reference – I'll do that & let me know if you need me to do anything else? When the PAC report comes in me or the receiving tech will check everything.

Jamie
