

61457 Edinburgh Social Care

NABA is working on its 2026 to 2027 strategic baseline approach.

It would be helpful if we could obtain and share with us the following data:

The total number of young people under the age of 18 years in Edinburgh Social Care at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

Please refer to the table below which provides the total number of young people under the age of 18 years in Edinburgh Social Care recorded at year end.

2010	2015	2020	2025
3,193	3,834	3,211	2,441

The number of Black young people under the age of 18 years in Edinburgh Social Care at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

Of those provided in A1 above, please refer to the table below which provides the number of Black young people under the age of 18 years in Edinburgh Social Care recorded at year end.

	2010	2015	2020	2025
African, African Scottish Or African British	33	76	80	82
Black, Black Scottish Or Black British	6	25	42	23
Total Black	39	101	122	105

The number of Black young people under the age of 18 years who were in Edinburgh Social Care and returned to their parents at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

Please refer to the table below which provides the number of Black young people under the age of 18 years who were in Edinburgh Social Care and returned to their parents at year end. The 'End Reason' is recorded as, 'To live with parents'.

2010	2015	2020	2025
1-5*	1-5	1-5	1-5

*As there were fewer than five young people in each year, these are shown as '1-5'. We cannot provide the precise numbers as this could lead to individuals being identified in breach of the Data Protection Act 2018.

The number of Black young people under the age of 18 years in Edinburgh Social Care who came into contact with or were referred to Police Scotland after entering care (i.e. not while under parental care) at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

This information is not recorded. We do not record referrals to other agencies on our database.

The number of Black young people under the age of 18 years who died while in Edinburgh Social Care at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

There were no such deaths in these years.

The number of Black care leavers who died after leaving Edinburgh Social Care at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

The number will not be provided. Given the small number involved, this could lead to an individual being identified, in breach of Section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998.

The number of Black care leavers referred to mental health services after leaving Edinburgh Social Care at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

The number of Black young people in Edinburgh Social Care referred to mental health services while in care at year end for 2010, 2015, 2020, and 2025.

This information is not recorded. We do not record referrals to other agencies on our database.