

61495 Garage Estate Review

The council is currently undertaking a review of their garage estate, which has so far taken ten months. How many garages are currently empty but have been found to be in a lettable condition during this review?

412 garages are currently empty. The review is now complete, but we have not been advised of the review findings currently, and so are unable to advise as to the condition of all the stock surveyed.