

62284 Pavement Parking

Please confirm whether your authority has implemented enforcement of the pavement parking prohibition under the Transport (Scotland) Act 2019, and if so, on what date the enforcement commenced (or is scheduled to commence).

Enforcement of the parking prohibitions encompassed in the Transport (Scotland) Act 2019 began on 29/01/24.

Please provide the total cost incurred by your authority to implement pavement parking enforcement (including, but not limited to, signage, Traffic Regulation Orders, staffing, and public communications).

These costs associated with enforcement of the Act are subsumed by the Council's decriminalised parking enforcement contract.

For each financial year since enforcement began, please provide the total revenue raised from Penalty Charge Notices issued for:

Pavement parking

Please note that enforcement began on 29/01/24.

2023/24 - £19,021.32

2024/25 - £232,532.34

2025/26 - £220,555.02

2026/27 - £27,050.00

Double parking

2023/24 - £7,581.11

2024/25 - £73,097.26

2025/26 - £131,508.83

2026/27 - £15,250.00

Parking adjacent to dropped footways

2023/24 - £5,453.73

2024/25 - £87,650.11

2025/26 - £97,021.15

2026/27 - £13,200.00

Please provide the number of complaints received per month for the 12 months prior to the start of the enforcement of pavement parking prohibition, and for each year since enforcement began relating to:

In line with the Council's retention policy, complaints data is generally held for two years. As enforcement began on 29/01/24, complaints data for the 12 months prior is not held, as it falls outwith the two-year retention period. Please note that the data below relates to formal complaints received by the Council's Parking Operations team from 29/01/24 to 29/01/25.

Pavement parking

6.

Double parking

None.

Parking adjacent to dropped footways

1.

Please provide the total number of streets within your authority area that have been exempted from the pavement parking prohibition, along with the criteria used to determine exemptions (if available within the scope of this request).

The Council has committed to offering no exemptions to the enforcement of the footway parking prohibition.