

62627 Household Recycling

Please provide the average contamination rate of household recycling collections, expressed as a percentage by weight, for each of the following financial years:

2022/23

19.5%

2023/24

21.12%

2024/25

23.69%

Please provide the estimated tonnage of household recycling rejected or sent to residual waste disposal due to contamination in each of the following financial years:

2022/23

4,981.23

2023/24

4,811.52

2024/25

5,666.26

Does your authority employ officers or teams with responsibility for checking household waste and recycling bins for misuse or contamination?

No.

The number of full-time equivalent (FTE) staff dedicated to this function, for each financial year from 2022/23 to 2024/25

Not applicable.

The total budget allocated to recycling enforcement activity for each of those years

Not applicable.

Please provide the number of fixed penalty notices or civil enforcement fines issued to householders for incorrect recycling or waste separation, and the total amount of monies generated from those fines, for each of the following financial years:

2016/17

2017/18

2018/19

2019/20

2020/21

2021/22

2022/23

2023/24

2024/25

Not applicable.

Is your authority currently operating in compliance with the Simpler Recycling regulations (as introduced under the Environment Act 2021)?

No, Simpler Recycling regulations do not apply in Scotland.

If not yet compliant, what is your authority's planned implementation date?

Not applicable.

If your authority intends to apply for a deferral or has already done so, please confirm the reason and the current status of that application

Not applicable.