Desc.: I was involved in an incident last night which resulted in my tyre being completely burst and damage to my alloy. The car was not drivable and I had to get a mobile tyre specialist to come and fix the damage. I have taken photos to the damage to my wheel and also of the sinkhole in the road. This bit of road is terrible and is a complete risk to both drivers and pedestrians! This issue needs to be fixed before more damage or injury occurs! Is there a claims procedure for my damages? As you can imagine I am now out of pocket through no fault of my own and am terrified someone is badly hurt or injured as a result of this sinkhole in this particular bit of road. Please see attached photos. 19/10/2020 / Time: 6:30pm
