

63070 Accessibility at Bus Stops

Local authority name

City of Edinburgh Council

Total number of all current bus stops in local authority area

In total, how many bus stops are there in your local authority area?

2,465.

Bus Stop Bypass

How many bus stop bypasses are in operation within your local authority area?

How many bus stop bypasses are either proposed or under construction within your local authority area?

The information you have requested is available on the Council's Disclosure Log under reference number '60332'.

How were the current bus stop bypasses funded within your local authority area?

Through capital budgets, external funding awards from bodies such as Transport Scotland and the Walk, Wheel Cycle Trust and developers' funding (either through the developer installing the stop themselves as part of their new infrastructure, or via a funding contribution towards the cost of the Council installing it).

How will the proposed bus stop bypasses be funded within your local authority area?

Funding for planned bus stop bypasses is generally awarded on a year-to-year basis. Funding arrangements will vary but likely sources will be through capital budgets, external funding awards from bodies such as Transport Scotland and the Walk, Wheel Cycle Trust and developers' funding (either through the developer installing the stop themselves as part of their new infrastructure or via a funding contribution towards the cost of the Council installing it).

Shared platform boarder bus stops

How many shared platform boarder bus stops are in operation within your local authority area?

There are 17 of this type of bus stop as shown in the table provided on our Disclosure Log under reference number '51470'.

How many shared platform boarder bus stops are either proposed or under construction within your local authority area?

We do not plan to create any new bus stops of this type within the city.

How were the current shared platform boarder bus stops funded within your local authority area?

Information not held.

How will the proposed shared platform boarder bus stops be funded within your local authority area?

We do not plan to create any new bus stops of this type within the city.