

63246 Hotels and Contingency Asylum Accommodation in Edinburgh

How many hotels or contingency accommodation sites are currently being used to house asylum seekers in Edinburgh?

Two.

Please provide the names of any hotels currently in use (if held) and the approximate number of people accommodated in each.

In compliance with the Data Protection Act 2018, we will not disclose names or addresses of any properties used as contingency accommodation as these are a person's primary residence and we consider this to be their personal information.

Based on the latest data provided by the Home Office, from March 2026, there were 86 people accommodated in The City of Edinburgh Council area.