

63514 Ravelston Park

Specifically in relation to the Children's play area and football/basketball court:

Who owns and is responsible for the upkeep of Ravelston Park, Craigcrook Road, Edinburgh?

The City of Edinburgh Council – Place Directorate, Operational Services, Parks Open Space and Visitor Services.

Is this park on the park replacement/ improvement programme?

No.

When was the park built?

2004.

When was the park last upgraded?

2004.

When was the park last inspected?

The last play park quarterly operational inspection was on 14 July 2026.

Has there been a budget allocated to replace the current park (the play park area for children specifically)?

No.

Can you please provide the last 3 years of recent park inspection reports.

Please refer to the attached inspection reports from November 2022, November 2023 and May 2025.

Third party personal information has been redacted from the documents provided in compliance with the Data Protection Act 2018.

What is the estimated remaining lifespan for the park?

5-15 years.

Please confirm previous complaints logged about the park.

There is insufficient detail recorded on our central complaint recording database to determine if the complaint relates to Ravelston Park. There is not a complaint category for parks. Our Parks and Greenspaces service does not hold separate records of complaints.