

63792 Grey residual waste bins

The total number of 240-litre grey residual waste bins currently in service within the City of Edinburgh.

14,197.

The number of those bins that are currently recorded as being issued to households which satisfy the Council's current eligibility criteria.

The number of those bins that are not recorded as meeting the current eligibility criteria.

Information not held.