65201 Teacher professional learning budget

The authority's centrally held budget for teacher professional learning (continuing professional development) for the financial years 2024-25 and 2025-26 — budgeted figure, and actual outturn for 2024-25 where available.

There is no centrally held budget for teacher professional learning, as budgets are devolved to schools, which they are required to manage in accordance with the Devolved School Management Scheme.

Of the 2024-25 figure above, the amount spent on externally contracted providers of professional learning.

Whether any part of that budget was spent in 2024-25 on professional learning in the Expressive Arts (music, dance, drama, art and design) for primary teachers and, if so, the amount.

Not applicable.

The number of in-service days scheduled for teaching staff in 2025-26, and the job title of the post that determines their content.

5 in-service days in which each Head Teacher is responsible for managing the content of the day in their school.

Any written strategy, plan or framework the authority holds for teacher professional learning in the Expressive Arts.

Information not held.
